BRYAN'S CONSERVATIVE VIEW

Nations Have Come Near to Conflict but Escaped It.

THE GOOD THAT HAS COME OF IT.

A Hurry Up Order for a Hundred Tons of Powder—Frigate Essex Sailed for Portsmoeth Navy Yard.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Atlanta, March 14—William J. Bryan expressed himself on the question of the hour, taking a conservative view of the situation. While not depreciating its gravity he said, "War with Spain, while at present a grave possibility, I do not regard as an inevitable consequence of the destruction of the Maine. Nations have frequently before approached much nearer to armed conflict than the United States and Spain stand at the present moment without actual hostilities resulting. If, however, the excitement shall accomplish nothing more than to put our sea coast defenses in a proper condition something will have been gained."

A HUNDRED TONS OF POWDER QUICK.

Troy, N. Y., March 14—The Schogticoke Powder Company has received a rush order for a hundred tons of powder from the government. The works are the largest for the manufacture of powder in this country.

ESSEX SAILS.

New York, March 14—The frigate Essex sailed this morning for the navy yard at Portsmouth.

Stole Twenty Dollars.

Yesterday Mr. Foster, who rooms over C. M. Vanstory & Co's, missed $20 from his pockets. He at once suspected a little colored boy named Slade, who had access to the room and questioned him closely. The boy at first denied the theft, but on being told if he would tell where the money was he would not be prosecuted he owned up and said he had given the money to Green McAdoo, a colored man.

Officers Pearce and Jeffreys were put on the trail and found Green, who tried to elude them, but was overtaken and asked about the money. He readily owned and told them the money was up stairs at a certain place in his room.

He was accompanied by the officers, the money secured and returned to its owner. Mr. Pearce thinks Green had the money in his pocket all the time, and was trying to fool him.

Miss Mabel Pugh Dead.

A telegram received this afternoon from Leesburg, Fla., tells of the death of Miss Mabel Clare Pugh. Her health has been bad for several months. It was hoped that her visit to Florida would be beneficial but it was not. A few days since her mother went to attend her bedside. Miss Pugh was just budding into young womanhood and the hearts of her many friends here will be saddened by the news of her death. The remains will reach here on the noon train tomorrow and the funeral services will be conducted from Westminster church at 1 o'clock p. m. by the pastor.

Capt. Guthrie Hurt.

Capt. C. B. Guthrie, freight conductor on the Southern between this city and Wilkesboro, had his hand badly mashed at Friendship Saturday night while coupling cars.

The accident was caused by a mistake of the engineer, who thought he signalled to move the train, but the trainmen deny having given any signal.

Capt. Gutherie's hand was dressed by Drs. Beall and Steamy, who found it necessary to amputate a part of the injured member, leaving only a part of the hand and two fingers. He is resting easy today.

That Contempt Case.

The railroad commission will on Tuesday probably take some action in the once much-talked-of contempt case against A. B. Andrews, H. W. Miller and John B. Muson. The question is whether anything will be done in the way of "punishment." Probably not, as just now Governor Russell is not desirous that the Southern Railway should be ill-treated. The passenger rate matter will come up. Bets are made that the commission will if not revoke its order reducing rates, at least amend it.—Col. Olds correspondence.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N.C., March 14, '98.

R. L. Picket, of Winston spent Sunday in the city.

Clyde Capel, of Troy, was a visitor to High Point Sunday.

D. L. Payne, the popular clerk at the New York racket store, spent yesterday in Greensboro.

Miss Venetia Smith, who has been north buying goods for her millinery store, returned this morning.

Messrs. H. C. Petty and Percy Worth, of Guilford College, spent yesterday in the city.

Rev. W. H. Brown, of Trinity High School was in the city yesterday, the guest of Rev. N. R. Richardson.

James Wray, of Archdale, passed through this morning en route to Lexington. He is a witness in the case of J. C. Kinney vs. the railroad for damages received in the Harrisburg wreck.

Mrs. George E. Nissen, of Salem, arrived in the city this morning to visit Mrs. R. C. Charles.

Three of High Points popular young people, Misses Sallye Millis, Connie Charles and K. P. Battle, made a visit to Trinity last week.

J. J. Ragan, who lived about four miles north of this place, died yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Ragan was well known in High Point and surrounding country. The funeral services took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Spring Hill church.

A row occurred last Saturday night over a girl between Beanier Chrouch and Eli Ingram. Ingram threw a knife at Crouch cutting his lip very badly. They had a preliminary hearing before magistrate W. B. Steele this morning and were bound over to court.

The town force are tearing the top off of the well on corner of Main and Washington streets. They are going to sink it deeper.

Mrs. D. L. Clark, of this place, Mrs. E. T. Blair, of Asheboro, and Miss Minnie Coltrane, of Randleman, left today for the north to buy stock for their millinery stores.

THE PRESS ON ANDREWS.

He Lectures on Lee at the Normal Tomorrow Evening.

Of President E. Benjamin Andrews who delivers his noted lecture on R. E. Lee at the Normal College tomorrow evening various papers say:

President Andrews' wonderful strong personality and greatness as an inspirer of men are everywhere recognized as responsible for the growth of Brown University.—Chicago Record.

President Andrews is, with perhaps two exceptions, the most distinguished educator in the country.—Atlanta Constitution.

President Andrews has been known for several years all over the world as a profound thinker on all matters pertaining to political economy.—Boston Traveler, Editorial.

Dr. Andrews was a soldier in the war for the Union and his bearing shows the effect of that experience. He is every inch a man and a Christian gentleman. I know of no man in the list of college presidents now living whom I would regard as so naturally marked out for just such a position as this.—Prof. Robert Elias Thompson, Staff Correspondent of the Irish World.

Hacks will run as usual at a ten cent fare each way.

Battle Ground Company Meeting.

The stockholders of the Guilford Battle Ground Company will meet at the office of Captain Ellington at the National Bank Tuesday at 4 o'clock p. m., March 15th.

The president earnestly urges a full attendance.

D. Schenck,
Pres. G. B. G. Co.

Soldiers in Plenty.

Tallahassee, Fla., March 13—From all reports coming into the Adjutant General's office here, and letters from commanders of companies, it is learned that the Florida State troops are now recruiting up to the full legal standard, with offers of enough men to put 3,000 more in the field in a week. In Tampa and Jacksonville especially the war fever is strong, and the commanders of companies there, both infantry and artillery, report offers of hundreds beyond their needs.

WE ARE PREPARED FOR WAR

Said Secretary of The Navy Long This Morning.

WE BUY THE AMAZONAS.

Spain Buys The O'Higgins—Both Ships to Be Transferred as Soon as Possible.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Washington, Mar. 14—"We are prepared for war" said Secretary Long this morning. "I am warranted in saying that we can obtain all the warships we want." Headded, "Several war vessels can become ours at an hours notice. We have concluded our plans for transforming merchant vessels into armored cruisers but we will not take possession of them until the necessity arises, We are fully prepared for war.

HAS BOUGHT THE AMAZONAS.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Mar. 14—The United States has bought the battleship Amazonas which will be transferred under the American flag so soon as arrangements are completed for turning her over to the American crew.

SPAIN GETS THE O'HIGGINS.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Mar. 14—Spain has bought the Chilian battleship O'Higgins and the Spanish flag will be hoisted over her within, a few days, when she leaves the Tyne.

Condensed War Telegrams.

Brazilian minister at London says contract for sale of Amazonas to the United States has been signed.

United States war vessels Helena Bancroft sailed from Lisbon in a southwesterly direction.

Big consignment of sub-marine mines arrive at Key West.

Secretary Bliss is in New York on important business and refuses to talk.

Pond Steel works at Newark are working night and day on disappearing gun carriages.

Supplies for the starving Cubans will be more promptly forwarded and distributed hereafter.

Spanish torpedo fleet sailed from Cadiz for Porto Rico to await Blanco's orders. Enthusiastic crowds bid the vessels farwell.

Proctor reported to the president that autonomy is a failure and the Maine was blowu up by design.

Naval board at New York practically decide to arm the liner St. Louis.

Cruiser Brooklyn arrives at Fortress Monroe from Venezuela and awaits orders.

Curzon in House of Commons refused to say whether England and America are negotiating an alliance.

A High Compliment.

We find in the Hotel Gazette, published in New York, the following very complimentary notice:

We most heartily recommend Mr. John M. Hammer, one of the room clerks of the Benbow House, Greensboro, N. C., as among the best in the land. He is certainly one of the most accommodating as well as efficient among the fraternity, and Mr. Morton, the new manager, is to be congratulated in having such an excellent attache among his office force. Mr. J. T. Matthews, another excellent man, is associated with Mr. Hammer in the office of the Benbow.

Orders to State Guards.

Orders have been out from the war department to the captains of the companies of state guards at some places, and presumably to all, requesting them to be in readiness but to "keep quiet" On Saturday evening orders in cipher were sent out which, of course, being secret, the nature of them could not be learned. It looks, however, as though the government expects an emergency to arise which would demand the services of the guards. The information that orders have been sent to the guards was furnished by a gentleman from a town having a company, and he saw the orders himself.

Divorced in Five Minutes.

Chicago, March 13—Mrs. Lizzie K. Spaulding, wife of former Bank President C. W. Spaulding, under sentence for embezzlement from Illinois University, was granted a divorce in five minutes after she had filed a cross bill to her husband's application for divorce.

A STRONG COMPANY.

Charlotte People Greatly Pleased With "Julius Caesar."

The Louis James Company which appears this afternoon in Julius Caesar and tonight in "Spartacus" played in Charlotte Saturday afternoon and night. The Observer of yesterday said of the company:

The matinee performance at the opera house yesterday in which Mr. Louis James appeared as Brutus in that great classic, "Julius Caesar," was an event to be remembered in the dramatic life of Charlotte. There was present an excellent audience, the great majority ladies. While Mr. James' reputation had preceded him, so good a company as a whole had been expected. The star took the character of Brutus with fine effect.

Mr. Barry Johnstone was an ideal Cassius—a finer piece of work than his in this part is seldom seen on any stage. Mr. F. W. Peters made a capital Anthony, Mr. Collins Kemper an entirely acceptable Caesar, and Miss Mary Emerson a very sweet Portia. The costuming was worthy of the company and the play. It was a privilege to have witnessed the performance, and it is to be feared that that its like will not be seen in Charlotte soon again.

EARNEST EVANGELIST.

Mr. Lee is Doing Very Effective Work at the Tabernacle.

The impression created by Evangelist Lee on those who have heard him is that he is dead in earnest and an honest preacher of righteousness. He is well worth hearing, being both eloquent and logical.

His sermon on hell last night was enough to convince any skeptic of the realities of that dread abode to which so many are hastening, meanwhile arguing, to deaden the remorse of conscience, that there is no hell. His sermon tonight on "The Immortality of Memory," will interest all who care to know what the Bible teaches of the future.

We make the above extract from the Tampa, (Fla.) Daily Times of last Wednesday. It will show the many friends of the earnest evangelist in the land of oranges. Prof. John A. Humphries, of Lynchburg, who led the choir here and at Winston during Mr. Lee's meetings last, fall is with him in Tampa.

The same issue of the Times, quoted above, says:

The singing led by John A. Humphries, of Lynchburg, Va., is a great addition to the service, and all who can sing are invited to join the choir and help.

Grape Shot.

There is either going to be a fight or a big swmming match.

Captain T. R. Robertson yesterday received an important letter from Raleigh, the conclusion of the whole matter being "it looks like war."

The Naval Reserves are beginning to feel a little little seasick.

Two recruiting officers passed through here last night on the fast mail. They were not in a talking mood.

A man prominent in the affairs of the nation passed through here several days ago. He was en route to Washington. Between Atlanta and Charlotte he sent $27 worth of telegrams.—Charlotte Observer.

Died at the Age of 115.

A Shenandoah Penn., dispatch says: Mrs. Kathrine Darmody died recently at Ellingown, a suburb of that city, at the age of 115 years. Deceased was the oldest resident of the coal region and probably the oldest inhabitant of the state. She was born in Ireland and came to this country 60 years ago and resided in Schuylkill county over half a century. Up to two years ago she walked to this city to do marketing and insisted in doing light housework up to two months ago.

Piling up Coal for Sicard.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 11—Kirk Woods & Co., of this city, have closed a contract with government officials for 250,000 tons of coal to be rushed to Key West. Mr. Kirk said:

"They allow us but a very short time for delivery and offer a large bonus if we deliver it before the time agreed upon. Special arrangements have been made by the government with the railroads to have this coal rushed through to Key West, as it is mined, on special trains."

Purchase of the Two Brazilian Ships.

Washington, Mar. 13—Secretary Long made the statement tonight that the matter of the purchase of the two Brazilian warships had not been settled.

BURDEN ON THE PRESIDENT

Congress To Leave Settlement of Cuban Question to Him.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE SUSPENDED.

And Everything Waits on The Report of the Board of Inquiry—An Early Adjournment.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Mar. 14—Developments in the Cuban situation have been confined during the past few days to a continuation of the active preparations being made by the war and navy departments for a possible conflict with Spain.

Diplomatic negotiations with Spain have been practically suspended since the Maine was blown up and with regard to the general question of Cuban freedom negotiations have not been renewed. The president was hopeful a few months ago that by this time the negotiations would be brought to a head, but the blowing up of the Maine interrupted them. Unless the report of the naval bord is hastened the president cannot end the controversy during this term of congress. Both branches are hurrying business in order to adjourn and leave the president to settle the Cuban question.

AMERICAN SILVER TRUSS.

Retains Severest Hernia with Comfort.
LIGHT, COOL, Easy to Wear. No pressure on Hips or Back. No understraps, Never moves.
in this truss the principle hitherto so greatly desired has at last been achieved; that of firmly and constantly holding the rupture with a gentle handlike pressure. Its tightness is featherweight in comparison with other trusses. It is so light the wearer scarcely knows he has anything on, and this is a great comfort, enabling the wearer to forget his ailment

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstory had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstory sent the old lenses with an explanation to the occulist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following;

MORMONISM AGAIN.

Ever and anon a discussion of Mormonism breaks out afresh in the newspapers. The Mormons, as is well known, are "working" North Carolina just now and some of the clergy and laity seem to be really alarmed at the prospects. A little cool reflection would show that this is quite needless.

The Monroe Journal pointed out some weeks ago that the class that becomes "converted" to Mor- quite useless for pro- monism is and is not wo- paganda purposes An- orth losing sleep over.

-y one who has taken the trouble to observe at all has noticed that in every community there are a few individuals who are anxious to be converted to some new creed once or twice a year. These fall easy victims to the proselyting elders or the elders fall victims to them, as you choose to regard it.

A great many people have heard much of the "Mormons," but have never seen one. To them, therefore, a Mormon possesses the same interest as would a yellow monkey or a green rhinoceros. When the elder has been seen once all this interest evaporates and the more is seen of him the less interest he excites. The wisest course with regard to the elder is simply to ignore him. The habit of thought and the ingrained method of life in North Carolina are antagonistic to Mormonism. They may very safely be trusted to take care of it.

It is such shallow and silly twaddle as the following, contributed by a correspondent to the Concord Standard, that helps Mormonism:

Now, when these fellows make their appearance teaching their doctrine, take them down the road a mile or two on a rail, and as Sam Jones says, if they don't like it let them set up there and take their medicine, and the next Mormon that comes along will not try to get a free pass on that railroad. It would not reflect on or discredit the ones that did it. These fellows are not expecting much else as they are treading in the footsteps of their forefathers of their church stained with crime. They often met with such treatment and much worse from the hands of an outraged people. The newspapers, the great educators of our day, can't afford to endorse summary treatment, but if the people demand it they can look another way while it is going on.

If summary treatment is right, why cannot the newspapers afford to endorse it? If the newspapers are "the great educators of our day," is it not better to take their advice rather than that of the gentlemen who ride Mormon elders on a rail and shoot down postmasters and their families from behind contiguous fences? The belligerent and courageous correspondent of the Standard can rest assured that when the rail business begins no self-respecting journal will look "another way." On the contrary it will publish the names of those who engage in it if they are obtainable.

Mormonism is thoroughly bad, but the best way to make converts to it is to mistreat the proselyting elders.

In the eyes of Father Worth the gentleman who discovered that the State Treasurer's salary is only $750 instead of $3,000 per annum was guilty of most pernicious activity.

Paris, March 13—The Temps says: Spain does not deceive herself when she counts upon the sympathy, at least latent, of European governments, but it would be a mistake for her to expect any affectual support from either Great Britain or the triple alliance. Before all she must rely upon herself.

Just why Spain should receive the sympathy of Europe, latent or otherwise, is not very apparent. The Temps, however, is probably right about it. Even more than England this country is isolated. Right or wrong, in any cause, we quite evidently stand alone. That the sympathy for Spain will remain latent is probably due wholly to the size of this country.

We publish elsewhere an interview of Col. Olds with J. Y. Hamrick in which the disintegration of the populist party is predicted. This may not come so soon as indicated in the interview, but that it must come sooner or later every man at all versed in political history is bound to see. There is room in this country for only two political parties. The populist party can never be one of that two. If any such possibility ever existed it passed away when trading began. Self respecting populists may as well align themselves with one or the other of "the old parties."

It cannot be denied that the reduction of Treasurer Worth's salary is in direct line with the most orthodox of populist demands.

The predictio- confined ..g of war are no longer ..y to the journals of saffron hue.

And to think that Father Worth had already lost his pass!

HOW THE MAINE WAS BLOWN UP.

Semi-Official Statement from Army and Navy Register.

New York, March 12—The Army and Navy Register, in its issue of today, says: "The Register is in possession of information, the correctness of which it has no reason to question, that certain evidence, gathered by the court of inquiry at Havana, has come in a semi-official form to the President from two prominent members of the board. The information has been in the hands of the President since Sunday and has served for the occasion of the unusual activity during the present week.

"The information is that the Maine was destroyed by a government submarine mine, planted in Havana harbor and deliberately exploded. More than this it appears that the Maine was purposely moored in the vicinity of the mine, and that the explosion occurred at the moment when the ship had been opportunely carried by wind and tide directly over the mine. These facts have been hinted at and written about in dispatches from Havana and Madrid, and among the varied statements made the actual conditions have been touched upon, but nothing authoritative has been permitted to escape from the court.

"That body is understood to have completed its work, but nothing is likely to be officially promulgated in regard to its findings for a week or more. There is obvious reason for such action, the objects of which cannot be defeated by independent newspaper statements. There can be but one outcome of such a report, and preparations for the inevitable results are being industriously and indefatigably prosecuted. The work of the week shows that the government at Washington appreciates the situation and will be ready to meet what has now ceased to be a mere emergency."

How the Moonshiners Work 'Em.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writes:

The moonshiners in New Light township, this county, have devised something new. Two stills there are for rent. A man gets ready and then say on Friday night a still is brought to him. He works it continuously for 48 hours and uses his material. Then it is removed and word is sent the revenue officers. The latter are shown the place where it was. Of course this is a blind. They watch that place afterwards, but never find the still.

Two Fatal Hypotheses.

The Trembling Suitor—I have come to ask you for your daughter's hand—but stay! Let me assure you that I am not a fortune-hunter. If you did not have a penny in the world I would love her just the same.

Old Billyuns—Young man, you are either a fool or a liar, and in either case I wouldn't want you to have my daughter. Get out!

At Midnight.

Southampton, Mar. 12—At the rate of speed the Paris is now going she will reach here about midnight.

JUDGE JOHN M. DICK.

A Joke That His Honor Did Not Appreciate.

Wm. H. Bailey writing his reminiscences of the North Carolina bar for the News and Observer says John M. Dick was senator from Guilford twice; was elected judge of the superior court. He had not the remotest sense of humor and this anecdote is told on him. A case was called before him on circuit and Judge Strange appeared for the plaintiff. He announced that he was not ready on account of the absence of a witness—Sarah Money. "Call her," said the Judge. The crier called—Sarah Money—but there was no answer. The Judge remarked: "You must go to trial, Judge Strange." Judge Strange responded: "What—is your Honor going to turn me out of court without ceremony"—Sarah Money.

The pun told on the bar and they could scarely refrain from theatrical applause.

Judge Dick saw nothing, and when going out for a recess he armed one of the young lawyers and said to him:

"Them lawyers laughed mightily. Were they laughing at me?"

"Oh no, Judge," responded the neophyte, and then went on to explain the pun. Well, the Judge still did not see anything to laugh at.

Well, Judge Dick kept riding around the circuit and trying to see where the fun came in, but failed until after finishing his courts as he was driving up the avenue to his home the whole with all its inwardness thing him and just as , flashed upon he was la- e reached his door Fi- ughing fit to break his sides. is wife came out to meet him and found him thus situated. Said she, "Why, dear husband, what's the matter?"

"Well, back yonder in Robeson I told Strange that he must go to trial and he had Mary Money called—she did not answer—and when I repeated "You must go to trial," Strange said "is your Honor going to turn one out of court without Mary Money." Well said his wife, "I see nothing to laugh at by that." "Well," replied the Judge, "I don't now, but I did a minute ago."

IS POPULISM DOOMED?

Labor Commissioner Hamrick Seems to Think So.

The populists will hold another informal conference here next Wednesday. One was held last autumn in the state library. Your correspondent had a talk today with Labor Commissioner J. Y. Hamrick, an anti-Butler or minority populist. He said: "All sorts of populists will be here. Notices have been signed by both majority and minority populists. We will talk over the situation and see whether the democrats will gobble us up or not. We will also discuss the matter of arranging for a state convention. The party is shaky. I do not know what will happen, but it looks like the party will split and part go to the democrats and part to the republicans. It is quite evident that Hamrick, who is a very observant man, and who is also a member of the state committee thinks the days of the party are numbered. Your correspondent told him that the disintegration of the party had seemed certain these six months or more. The critical situation of the party makes the meeting next Wednesday a necessity. Care is taken to say that it is informal. Nothing makes the average populist angrier than to intimate that his party has seen its best days; is in fact, on its last legs. Thre are populists who verily believe that their party can continue until the end of time to hold the balance of power, do political trading and scare some North Carolina Democrats. These three things are the highest ambition of not a few populists.—Col. Old's correspondence.

Did Not Sad It.

London, March 14—The Madrid correspondent of the times says the statement of the Berlin correspondent of La Correspondencia de Espana, that Emperor William, at a private dinner party last week, declared that "so long as William II is the German Emperor, the United States shall not possess themselves of Cuba," is not confirmed.

Vick's Little Liver Pills are best for adult or child. 25 cents. All druggists.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's. drug rtore.

Kodak cures any headache or neuralgia. 3 doses 10 cents. All druggists.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularls effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

I feel it my duty to testify to the superior merits of "Rice's Goose Grease" as a cough cure. On Friday night the 7th inst I coughed almost the entire night. Cough syrups etc. failing to bring any relief whatever. On the following night I decided to test the virtue of your remedy by bathing my chest thoroughly with it and going to bed, and I tell you honestly I never slept sounder in my life. I take pleasure in commending "Rice's Goose Grease" to those who may be in need of a cough cure.

Wishing you much success. I am

Tonsilitis Tonsilitis

Tonsilitis Can Be Cured. Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will do it.

Eagle, Iredell Co., N. C., December 10, 1897.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial trouble which, every time he took cotd, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything and could take no solid food. Last spring he took one-half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled with the Wash, and it cured him. He has not had a spell since.

The Lamp that lights the way to Good Health is a bottle of the greatest of all blood purifiers—

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

This great blood purifier and nerve tonic, cures diseases by removing from the system, the conditions which produce them. It expels all poison and impurity from the blood. It acts upon the nerves as a stimulant, particularly upon those nerves belonging to the great organs of the body; therefore, it causes the heart to beat with greater force, the lungs to take in more oxygen and to expel more carbonic acid; it induces the kidneys to send off more of the poisonous excretions from the blood; the bowels to have more regularity and healthfulness in their action; the sweat glands to throw out more impurities.

Our illustrated book of 36 pages will tell you what is the matter and what to do. Its free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

A SOUTHERN POET'S RECOLLECTIONS OF THE GENERAL.

Frank L. Stanton Recalls Some Incidents of the Closing Days of the War—General Sherman's Goodness to the Elder Stanton, Who Was Very Ill In Savannah.

Frank L. Stanton, the popular Georgia poet, always speaks up for General Sherman when he hears any severe criticism of that famous commander's methods.

The story told by Stanton has never found its way into print, but it deserves a place among the minor incidents and reminiscences of the war period.

"When Savannah fell," said Stanton, "I was a little chap about 8 years old. The confusion and tumult in the streets frightened me, and I was afraid to go very far from the house.

"Young as I was, I understood that something very serious had occurred. Instead of seeing Confederate soldiers parading the streets with a few Federal prisoners I saw thousands of Federals swarming through the town, and they had a great many Confederates under guard.

"The situation had been reversed. That was plain, even to a child.

"My father was very ill, in the last stages of consumption, and my mother was worn out with anxiety and the cares of the household. Our neighbors were panic stricken, and everybody seemed to be expecting some awful calamity.

"Penned up there as we had been for a long time, without supplies and without any money except worthless Confederate currency, the outlook was gloomy enough. How was my sick father to get the things he needed? That was the problem with my mother.

"Somebody told General Sherman about my father and mentioned the fact that he was a kinsman of a very distinguished and powerful officer on the Union side.

"One day when I entered my father's room I found three Federal officers sitting there in pleasant conversation with the invalid and my mother.

"I was scared and started to run, but one of the strangers, a middle aged man with a roughly trimmed brown beard, called me back. He asked my name, and before I knew it had me on his knee, and he said so many nice things to me that I took quite a fancy to him.

"He was General Sherman, and he had called with two of his staff officers to see my father. When the visitors left, the general told my mother at the door that he knew all about the inconveniences of a siege and insisted upon sending from the army stores something that would suit a sick man.

"Under the circumstances such an offer could not be declined. It was a picnic for the children of the family, I can tell you.

"After that, while the general was in the city, something was sent to the house every day. Brandy, wine, loaf sugar, lemons, beef, chickens, coffee, vegetables and I don't know what else came in generous quantities. We had plenty for the family and for our nearest nighbors.

"Nor was that all. The general sent one of the best physicians in the hospital service, and the last days of my father were made far more comfortable than we had hoped for under the adverse conditions of those dark days.

"General Sherman came to the house once more before he left Savannah. I cannot remember what he said, but he was sympathetic and he said something about the pleasure it gave him to aid a relative of his distinguished friend at Washington.

"At that time I was very fond of a showy uniform, and it vexed my childish mind to see my friend the general always dressed so shabbily. His staff officers presented a better appearance, and some of them were really gorgeous in their spectacular rig.

"The other boys and the negroes agreed with me that the commander must be in very hard luck or he would certainly dress better. Still, I was then convinced that he was a wonderfully wise man. With my pockets full of his loaf sugar, which I had surreptitiously abstracted from the pantry, I would have been ungrateful if I had formed any other opinion.

"Sherman left the city and marched onward through the Carolinas, and that ended the war.

"No, I never saw him again. My father died, and I lived in different places, my work keeping me so busy that I had no time to think of the general or anybody else not connected with my immediate business. I wish now that I had seen him before he passed away. As it is, I can only recall him as he appeared to my boyish and wondering eyes, under circumstances which did not give me an opportunity to study him. No matter what may be said of his conduct in war, I cannot help liking him. He was a good friend just when we most needed one."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Doubtful Compliments.

The compliments paid by the poor are often put in an amusing way. One old woman who was very fond of the rector said to Mr. Bernays: "You know, sir, us likes the rector; is ears are so clean." Surely an odd reason for parochial affection. Another admirer once declared with regard to the whole staff of clergy, "You are all so plain" (a word of high commendation), "but as for the vicar, 'e's beautiful." The greatest compliment, though at the same time the most curious Mr. Bernays ever heard, was paid by a workingman to a certain bishop, famous for his simple kindliness, "What I likes 'bout the bishop is 'e's not a gentleman."—Westminster Gazette

Mr. J. C. Brown was run down last Saturday evening by a colored bicyclist. He was knocked down and injured considerably and was unable to leave his room yesterday. There is too much reckless riding on the part of the cyclers and the proper authorities should call a halt.

A handsome blotter, printed in four colors—red, green, brown and blue—has just been sent out by Jos. J. Stone, from his job printing department. The work is well done and the design artistic and unique. It is in keeping with his motto: All work sent out from his office must be first-class.

E. M. Caldcleugh & Bro., today received a large shipment of glassware, lamps, Chinaware, etc. Their mammoth store is well worth visiting at any time. They carry the largest stock in their line to be found in the state. A visit to their store will convince you that this is true.

A mule—in pursuance of a custom mules sometimes have—took a notion to run away this morning and made the attempt. He was hitched to a wagon loaded with lumber, driven by a colored man. His muleship did not get far in his wild career—starting somewhere down South Elm and was held up just as he turned into West Washington, at J. W. Scott & Co's. No damage.

FULL OF MINES.

This is What a Cuban Says About Havana Harbor.

Mr. Thos. N. Woody, of Moore county, who was in Greensboro today enroute home from Richmond said to a Telegram man that he rode as far as this city with a Cuban who was on his way from Richmond to Key West and from there was going home.

Mr. Woody says he neglected to ask his name, but asked a good many questions and among other things was told that Havana harbor was full of sub-marine mines which could be touched off in a moment by means of electric wires, and that it was dangerous for an American vessel to go nearer than thirteen miles of Havana.

The story of this man may or may not he true; Mr. Woody is inclined to the opinion that he knew he was talking about, but it is just possible that he was talking through his hat. If the harbor is full of mines for a distance of thirteen miles and this man knows it and knows of the secret wires connecting the same with an electric dynamo, he would perhaps be a valuable personage for Uncle Samuel to have an interview with.

T. J. Shaw for Judge.

We learn with pleasure that Guilford county is to have a candidate for the judgeship in the person of Thos. J. Shaw, Esq. It is admitted that this county is entitled to some recognition at the hands of the democratic district convention, and the gentleman mentioned is eminently fitted for judicial honors. With united effort from this county, Mr. Shaw should be nominated.

The Matinee.

At the matinee this afternoon a large audience saw Julius Caesar played in a masterly manner. Large delegations from the Normal and Greensboro Female Colleges were in attendance. Mr. James as Brutus was every inch the eminent actor his reputation indicates. His support is unusually strong.

Those who fail to see the curtain rise on "Spartacus" tonight at 8:30 will miss the attraction of the season.
